THE 1965-1966 SEASON

ATHLETICS STAFF

JAMES J. HENRY
Director of Athletics

It might be considered somewhat ironic that James J. Henry should be Director of Athletics at La Salle College, a school that has not had a football team since 1941, for football has played a great part in Jim Henry's life.

Before being graduated from Villanova in 1930, Henry received All American honorable mention at end, and when he came to La Salle in 1930 he was named line coach, then head coach in 1940 and 1941. In 1961 he was president of the Eastern Intercollegiate Football Officials Association, and he officiated many of the nation's top grid contests for some 25 years before retiring after the 1964 Army-Navy Game.

Football, however, is only part of the story of Jim Henry, for he is a man devoted not merely to a single sport, but to athletics and what college athletics stand for. In his 35 years at La Salle—31 of which have been spent as Athletic Director—he has given of his time and energy equally for all sports. He coached the 1931 Explorer basketball team to a 15-4 record and helped organize La Salle's crew, the first Catholic College crew in the nation. A total of nine varsity sports bring national recognition to the college through his guidance.

Mr. Henry has served on many committees including the Eligibility Committee of the Middle Atlantic Conference and Holiday Tournament Selection Committee of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference. He is also vice president of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame and Maxwell Memorial Football Club.

A Professor of Finance on La Salle's faculty, Henry received the honorary degree of doctor of law from the college in 1955. He and his wife have three adult children, one of whom is a member of the Brothers of Christian Schools, the teaching order that conducts La Salle.

ROBERT W. WALTERS
Head Basketball Coach
(Third Season)

When Bob Walters was named head coach of the Explorers on April 8, 1963, he became the first alumnus to assume this position since Charles McGlone's three-year term ended at the end of the 1948-49 campaign.

Now in his third season, Walters celebrated his return to the school by guiding the Explorers to their finest campaign in a decade in 1963-64. La Salle finished with a 16-9 record, its first Big Five title and the ECAC Quaker City Holiday Tournament Championship. Last year, the Explorers finished with a 15-8 record and appeared in the National Invitation Tourney.

Walters, 39, carries an outstanding portfolio of previous basketball experience, including a brilliant career as a player, a tenure as assistant to the highly-regarded Ken Loeffler at La Salle, and a five year term as a high school coach.

"One of the happiest and most enlightening years I've spent was under Ken," explains Walters, referring to the 1952-53 campaign when he was Loeffler's assistant.

Because of the death of his father, Walters was forced to resign this position at the end of the season to devote full attention to his family's prosperous plumbing and air-conditioning contracting business.

As a player, Walters was known for his great shooting, especially from the outside. He led the Explorers in scoring all four years of his varsity career (1943-47), finishing with a total of 1,193 points, which made him the all-time La Salle scoring leader until Larry Foust surpassed him three years later.

In the 1945-46 season, Walters, a 5'10 guard, scored 367 points, then a Pennsylvania state scoring record. A two-time captain of the Explorers, Walters had the distinction of being the captain of La Salle's first post-season tournament team in 1947, when the Explorers finished runnerup in the Middle Atlantic Conference tourney.

Walters was named to Philadelphia's All-City team three times and received All-State and honorable mention All-American recognition in his senior year.

A native of Philadelphia, Walters attended St. Joseph's Prep. After graduating from La Salle College, he was head coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High School for five seasons. Opposing coaches in the Catholic League at the time were Jack Kraft, of Villanova, and Jack Ramsay, of St. Joseph's.

Walters is a former president of La Salle's Endowment Foundation and present co-chairman of the college's Special Gifts Committee. A resident of suburban Meadowbrook, Pa., he and his wife, Frances, have four children: Susan, 20; Robert W., Jr., 16; William, 15, and Christopher, 13.

JOSEPH W. HEYER

Freshman Basketball Coach
(Third Season)

Joseph W. Heyer, one of the finest all-around guards in La Salle College history, celebrated his return to his alma mater in the 1963-64 season by guiding the Explorer yearlings to a fine 12-1 record and a share of the Big Five title.

After graduating from La Salle in 1960, Heyer had enjoyed a highly-successful coaching tenure at Philadelphia's Cardinal Dougherty High.

He guided the Cardinals to the final game of the Catholic League play-offs all three years of his coaching reign and finished with an overall won-lost record of 54-20.

Heyer also coached baseball and taught history and gym at Cardinal Dougherty High. He is still on the faculty of that school and is nearing completion of work towards a Master's degree in Education at Temple University.

A 27-year-old native of Philadelphia, Heyer scored a total of 928 points during his varsity career at La Salle from 1957 to 1960. During the 1958-59 campaign, he became only the fourth junior in La Salle history to go over the 400 point mark in single-season scoring, finishing with 402.

Heyer was named to the Middle Atlantic Conference first team in his junior year, and Philadelphia's All Big Five team the following campaign.

PROSPECTS FOR THE SEASON

By Coach Bob Walters

With only two starters returning, it looks like La Salle is going to have a tough time coming close to last year's 15-8 record which included an appearance in the National Invitation Tourney.

One of our main problems, of course, is another rugged schedule—one that would be a challenge for the best team in the country. Road games are slated against the likes of Western Kentucky, Utah State, Seattle, Creighton, Miami (Fla.), Georgetown, Duquesne and Seton Hall. Home opponents include nationally-ranked Brigham Young in the Quaker City Tourney, as well as the traditional Big Five powers and such teams as Syracuse and Louisville.

Guard Hubie Marshall, the team's second leading scorer last year, and forward George Paull, a solid all-around performer, are the only returning starters. I expect both to be even better after good sophomore campaigns, but overall, our scoring and rebounding strength should be considerably weaker than last year.

Marshall must assume the gaping playmaking hole left by the graduation of Curt Fromal, who deserved every inch of his "Little" All American recognition last year. Not only was he the team's leading scorer, but Curt's ball-handling and passing enabled La Salle to engineer the best fast break attack of any team in the school's history.

Paull, of course, will have to carry most of the scoring and rebounding burden in the frontcourt now that 6'7 George Sutor and 6'5 Al Tezsla are gone. The key to La Salle's success may be 6'6 sophomore Bill Ring, the tallest player on the varsity, who is expected to take Sutor's place. Bill averaged 20 points and almost 15 rebounds a game as a freshman and has the potential to be a good college center.

A pair of juniors with limited experience but promising ability, Chuck Storm and Eddie Burke, are the top candidates for the other backcourt slot. Storm is only 6'2, but he can play either guard or forward and is one of the best around defensively. Burke has shown good shooting potential in limited appearances but he had a serious operation during the summer and may be late getting in top playing condition.

If Burke works out at guard, Storm will play in the frontcourt. Otherwise the forward slot looks like a three way battle between 6'5 Jerry Marano, the only senior on the club, and a pair of 6'3 transfer students Dave Ervin (Salem, W. Va., College) and Aaron McKenna (Wharton Jr. College, Texas). Marano has the edge here. He did a good job, especially in rebounding and defense, as a reserve last year. If Jerry could pick up his scoring, he'd be an outstanding collegiate forward.

Another sophomore who may help up front is 6'4 Dave Bednarik, who surprised quite a few people with his clutch play for the frosh last season. Rounding out the squad are guards Bill Magarity, who played occasionally last year, and newcomers Dan Carr and Jim Graham.

With newcomers, or veterans with limited experience, supplying 60% of our firepower this year, it might be a while before the team matures. Look for the Explorers to pull a few surprises before the season ends, however.

MEET THE EXPLORERS

(*) Returning Lettermen

David M. Bednarik

Sophomore 19 6'4 195 Bethlehem, Pa.

Dave is a good frontcourt reserve prospect who led Explorer yearlings in points scored (209—19.0 ppg.), rebounds (130—11.8 rpg.), field goal percentage (80 for 158—50.6%) and free throw accuracy (40 for 69—71%). His best game was a 35 point effort against Penn's yearlings when he hit 10 of 18 shots from the floor and 15 straight from the foul line. A strong rebounder and better-than-average shooter, Dave's only drawback is a lack of speed.

Unlike his brother, Chuck, former Penn All American and star center-linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL, Dave never concentrated much in football although he played a little fullback as a High School sophomore. As a senior, he captained Bethlehem High's basketball team and made "All Eastern Pennsylvania." Dave has three brothers and two sisters. He's majoring in Liberal Arts.

*Gerald A. (Jerry) Marano

Senior 21 6'5 205 Lafayette Hill, Pa.

Jerry was last year's most pleasant surprise and, consequently, the subject of one of the most unusual success stories in collegiate basketball. Cut once as a sophomore, he was given another chance and made the squad on sheer hustle. Then, in less than two seasons, he battled his way from 12th man to the top frontline reserve slot, to a probable starting role this season. He impressed considerably against Syracuse in last year's Holiday Festival in Madison Square Garden when he came off the bench to do a good job under the boards when the starters ran into foul trouble. His improvement in rebounding and defense has been absolutely amazing since his freshman year when he averaged only five points and seven rebounds a game. If he could improve his shooting touch (career high is seven points vs. Delaware last year) and 1.9 ppg. scoring average, much of La Salle's frontcourt problem could be alleviated. Jerry, another graduate of La Salle High, is the only senior on the squad. He has one sister. An outstanding candidate for Academic All American honors, he is a Dean's List student majoring in Chemistry.

1964-65	19	11	15	57	37	1.9
2 Yr. Totals	29	15	17	76	47	1.6

Daniel P. Carr

Sophomore 21 6'1 165 Philadelphia

Dan has improved considerably since playing on the 1962-63 freshman team. He dropped out of school for two years, but showed enough talent upon returning this semester to earn a backcourt reserve slot. Incidentally, Carr and senior Jerry Marano are the only members of the '62-63 frosh still on the varsity. Carr averaged 7.6 ppg. for the yearlings, but had the team's individual high game, 19 against St. Joseph's. He played three years of varsity ball at Father Judge High and was president of the Student Council his senior year. Dan has two younger sisters and is majoring in Marketing.

James A. Graham

Junior 20 6'2 194 Philadelphia

Jim just missed making the varsity last year, but showed enough improvement to clinch a frontcourt reserve slot this season. He averaged 4.0 ppg. for the 1963-64 freshman team with his scoring high of 10 coming against St. Joseph's and rebounding high of 10 against Temple. He's improved his shooting considerably since then. Jim was a forward for three years at Father Judge High. He has one sister and is majoring in Industrial Management.

Charles L. (Chuck) Storm

Junior 20 6'2 185 Philadelphia

Chuck is expected to start in the backcourt this year after appearing in 17 varsity games before going on academic probation as a sophomore. Although he averaged only 2.6 ppg., Chuck has improved his outside shooting considerably and has the potential to be a solid performer. He can play anywhere, rebounds well for his size and plays perhaps the toughest defense in town. His career high is 10 against Gettysburg, but if he comes anywhere close to his 14 ppg. scoring average as a freshman, La Salle's chances would be strengthened immeasurably. Chuck lettered for three years at Roman Catholic High where he made the Scholastic All Catholic-All American squad his senior year. He also excelled in baseball (shortstop) at Roman. He has three sisters and one brother and is majoring in Marketing.

William J. (Bill) Magarity

Junior 20 5'10 160 Wyndmoor, Pa.

This peppery, ball-control specialist appeared in 11 varsity games last year, made 10 of 17 shots from the floor (58.8%) and all nine attempts from the charity stripe for 29 points. Hence, he will probably be one of the top backcourt reserves. A broken leg in the first week of practice hampered Bill's progress as a 1963-64 freshman, but he came back to score 24 to spark the big upset over St. Joseph's highly-regarded yearlings. His varsity high is eight points against Delaware last year. Magarity's father, Bill, played football for La Salle and his cousin, Dan McDyre, captained the Explorers' track team and won IC4A and Penn Relays' javelin titles in 1963. Bill lettered in football (quarterback) and basketball at La Salle High, co-captained the court squad and made honorable mention All Catholic his senior year. He has five brothers and two sisters, and is majoring in Marketing.

1964-65	10	9	7	29	2.6

*Hubert (Hubie) Marshall

Junior 21 6'0 170 Coatesville, Pa.

Hubie should emerge as one of the nation's outstanding playmakers this year after finishing as team's second leading scorer as a sophomore (15.3 ppg.). Playing alongside the great Curt Fromal, he went over the 20 point mark seven times, led the team in scoring nine games and had a career high of 31 against Georgetown on a brilliant 14 for 23 shooting night. He was the top foul shooter on the team (84.8%) and ranked third in the nation in that category at mid-season. Hubie also was responsible for La Salle's most dramatic win in years when he hit on a 35 foot desperation jumper at the buzzer to send the Niagara game into overtime. Against Syracuse in Madison Square Garden he kept the Explorers in the game with 16 of his team's 24 points in the first half. He ended the game with 28, including seven overtime points to clinch the triumph. Hubie also had 18 points in second half to lead Explorer comeback against Temple in Garden Festival consolation and 20 in second half at Louisville. Although he tends to run into "cold" spells at times, Hubie has a devastating jump shot and throws lightning-quick passes. An All State star for two years at Coatesville High, Hubie set a host of scholastic and Ches-Mont League records including a career total of 1,231 points and a single game high of 50 in final home game against Pottstown. Hubie is the only married player on the squad. A Business major at La Salle, he has four brothers and one sister. Younger brother, Curt, is playing in the backcourt for the Explorer yearlings.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Reb'ds	Points	PPG.
1964-65	23	143	67	86	353	15.3

Edward J. Burke

Junior 20 5'11 170 Philadelphia

Exceptional shooting ability from the outside could carry this set shot artist into starting backcourt position. However, he missed the first two weeks of practice recovering from a serious operation during the summer. Eddie picked up valuable play-making experience in 13 varsity appearances last year and indicated that he could score consistently if given a regular opportunity. He scored nine points against Delaware for a career high, but had six in the final minutes against Villanova and five against Creighton. Eddie has a tremendous "basketball mind," according to coach Bob Walters and improved his ball-handling considerably last year. He captained St. Joseph's High's 1962-63 varsity under coach John (Jocko) Collins, presently a member of La Salle's basketball staff, and regards winning the previous year's Catholic League basketball his greatest thrill in sports. He has three brothers and one sister. A French-Education major who plans teaching as a career.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Reb'ds	Points	PPG.
1964-65	13	11	10	12	32	2.5

*George S. Paull

Junior 20 6'4 207 Philadelphia

One of the nation's better sophomore forwards last year, George should become one of the All-Time La Salle greats before he graduates. He was the team's fourth leading scorer (12 ppg.) but led the squad in field goal percentage (50.2%) and always seemed to be making the clutch play—either offensively, defensively or under the boards. His career high is 23 scored against Lafayette. Against Gettysburg, he hit nine of ten field goal attempts. Despite his fine play, George's feats often go unnoticed because he is just not a spectacular-type performer. He had 16 crucial points against Miami, Penn and St. Joseph's for example, but few people noticed because a teammate overshadowed him. Moreover, Paull played the major part of the campaign in obvious pain from an ailment known as "Taylor's Bunionette" which was corrected by a post-season operation on the little toe of his left foot. George was an All Catholic performer at Cardinal Dougherty High School in both basketball and baseball and has already clinched a spot on the Explorer baseball varsity at first base. His high school coach in both sports was present Explorer frosh mentor Joe Heyer. George has two brothers and a sister, and is majoring in History.

Aaron L. (Mac) McKenna

Sophomore 20 6'3 175 New Orleans, La.

Aaron is slated for frontcourt reserve duty after spending a year at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College. He starred for three years at St. Augustine's High (New Orleans) where he made All City and District in 1963 and led his team to a spot in the National Catholic Scholastic Tourney, in Washington, D.C. Aaron also competed in track at Wharton. He has one brother and is majoring in General Business.

William E. (Bill) Ring

Sophomore 19 6'6 190 Washington, D.C.

Much of La Salle's progress this year rests on the slender shoulders of this sophomore slated to take over George Sutor's center slot. According to most observers, Ring has all the tools necessary to make a good collegiate pivotman. He is quick, has good reflexes, can rebound and score as his freshman figures (21 ppg. and 14.7 rebounds a game) indicated in nine appearances before being declared academically ineligible. His only problem might be a lack of stamina, but he has been working on a weight-building program and should be able to go 40 minutes. His best freshman efforts were 28 points in his debut against Albright and 19 rebounds against Temple. He played scholastic basketball at St. John's High, making All Catholic and honorable mention All Metro, his senior year. Bill has three sisters and is majoring in General Business.

David A. (Lefty) Ervin

Dave could be this year's "sleeper." He didn't compete last year after transferring from Salem (W. Va.) College where he played one year of basketball and baseball, but has shown enough hustle and rebounding ability in practice to be considered a strong candidate for a starting frontcourt slot. He's a tough "battler" under the boards in the Harry Carpenter - Al Tezsla mold. Dave played at Abington High where he made the Suburban I All Star team and was co-captain of his team in senior year. He's already clinched a righthanded pitching spot on La Salle's 1966 baseball varsity. Dave has two older sisters and is majoring in General Business.

Outlook: All American candidate Clem Haskins (23.4 ppg.) heads young, but talented team that figures to better last year's surprising record. Outlook: Pirates have speed, good shooting and ball-handling ability but lack height and depth. Vets Tony Cuccolo and Charles Mitchel form solid backcourt, but rest of squad is question mark. Always tough at home, though.

Guard Bill Reilly, the leading frosh scorer (19.2) 6'6 Ron Guziak (18.3) and 6'4 Rich Carlberg figure to start.

Outlook: Lacking a "superstar" for the first time in years, Aggies will rely on more balanced scoring and a stronger defense. Loss of the great offensive punch of the late Wayne Estes and LeRoy Walker (54.5 ppg. between them) will hurt, but a frontcourt of 6'10 Steve Roth and 6'8 Alan Parrish and play-making combination of Myron Long and Mickey Dittebrand should insure a big year.

Lettermen: Returning 6, Lost 4
Captain: To be announced

Outlook: Team has good, young leapers and shooters; should be flying high by midseason. Lack of depth is only apparent weakness. Frontcourt of Tom Workman (15.2 ppg.), Malkin Strong (11.1) and Elzie Johnson goes 6'7-6'7-6'5 in height. 6'4 veteran Plummer Lott and promising 6'5 soph Jim LaCour, two fine shooters, head backcourt.

17. AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

Wednesday, February 2, 7:00 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

(SERIES RECORD: FIRST MEETING)

Location: Washington, D.C.
Enrollment: 3,500
Conference: Independent
Coach: Alan Kyber (W-O, L-O)
Publicity: Mike Trilling

Nickname: Eagles
Colors: Red, White & Blue
1964-65 Record: 4-19
Lettermen: Returning 5, Lost 6
Captain: Tony Jiorle

Outlook: Eagles will have biggest team in school's history and should improve. 6'6 center Jack Townsend, 6'4 forward Jack Guy and guard Tony Jiorle all started last year, but sophs will probably be key to success. 6'8 Gary Horkey, 6'6 John Simkovich and 6'5 Walt Lucas will battle for starting berths as will 7'1 Art Beatty. Howard Furman, transfer from North Carolina, is backcourt prospect.

18. LAFAYETTE COLLEGE

Wednesday, February 9, 7:00 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

(SERIES RECORD: LA SALLE 15, LAFAYETTE 4)

Location: Easton, Pa.
Enrollment: 1,600
Conference: Middle Atlantic
Coach: George Davidson
(W-157, L-84)
Publicity: Robert W. Smith

Nickname: Leopards
Colors: Maroon & White
1964-65 Record: 12-8
Lettermen: Returning 5, Lost 3
Co-Captains: Dave Brown and Walt Manuel

Outlook: Leopards lose great scoring punch of Preston Denby and Dan Kristoff and apparently lack height, experience and scoring power to match last year's record. 6'3 Dave Brown should lead team in scoring and rebounding. Mike Goetz is a good rebounder but the other starters, Lou Day, Walt Manuel and Nick Azzolina, must supply more offensive punch.

Guard Bill Melchionni, one of the finest around, and 6'5 vet reserve Bernie Schaffer (24 & 16, respectively vs. LSC last year) form nucleus. 6'5 junior Terry McGuire and 6'4 soph Joe Crews will probably start up front with senior reserve Kevin Traynor at guard.

Outlook: Bullets lack a solid playmaker but should improve last year's record. 6'4 Chris Sirms, Chuck Richardson and Jim Ruck are tough veterans underneath with Sirms expected to supply most of the scoring. Dave Yates and Bob Morris are experienced, but inconsistent, guards. 6'5 Ray Faczan heads bench; 5'8 Dick Falk is best sophomore.

Outlook: Owls have three full-time and two part-time starters back and figure to improve if playmaking inconsistency can be curbed. 6'8 center Jim Williams should rebound after suffering off year. 6'6 Ken Morgan is tough rebounder; guards Chris Kefalos and Don Cartwright should be better with year's experience. 6'3 Clarence Brookins, a deadly jump-shooter, is promising soph.

Outlook: Team returns three starters but loses graduated scoring star Warren Isaac and has no regular over 6'3. Tom Qualters and Bob LaRusso return up front as does guard Kevin McCulloch. Veterans Jim Ahrens, John Stenson and John Eltzholtz will share playmaking duties but lack of rebounding will make winning year difficult.

23. CANISIUS COLLEGE

Saturday, February 26, 9:30 P.M. (EST), at Buffalo (Auditorium), N.Y.

Nickname: Griffins
Colors: Blue & Gold
1964-65 Record: 10-12
Lettermen: Returning 7, Lost 3
Captain: Jim Hessinger

Outlook: Griffins lose entire frontcourt and don't figure to have winning season. Backcourt is well fortified with John Morrison and Andy Anderson, a pair of talented veterans, but sophs must supply scoring punch. Big things are expected from Jack Hassett, a 6'4 sophomore. Veteran reserves 6'6 Warren Plant and 6'5 Jim Hessinger will probably start up front.

Nickname: Cardinals
Colors: Red & Black
1964-65 Record: 15-10
Lettermen: Returning 4, Lost 6
Captain: To be announced

Outlook: Cardinals return only one starter (6'7 Joe Liedtke) but are anxiously awaiting one of finest soph groups in nation. It's headed by 6'8 Westley Unselde who averaged 35.8 ppg. and 23.5 rpg. for unbeaten frosh. Another soph, Fred Holden, will start at guard, and big things are expected from 6'5 newcomer Bob Marin. ## THE LA SALLE STORY

La Salle College celebrated its Centennial Year in 1963 and now is well into its second century of service to higher education and the community of Philadelphia.

The College was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle. By 1929, having outgrown three previous locations in Philadelphia, the campus was moved to its present 30 acre site at 20th st. and Olney ave., in the East Germantown section of the city. The Evening Division was inaugurated in 1946 in response to the needs of industry throughout the metropolitan area.

Since 1945, La Salle has experienced the most dramatic period of expansion in its history. Present enrollment in both Day and Evening Divisions is over 6,000 students as compared to the 1940 enrollment of about 400. In the last 16 years, twelve new buildings have been added to the campus. Both the Day and Evening Divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration.

Seven modern residence halls accommodate over 600 out of town students. A $2 million, three story College Union Building, completed in 1959, includes a Little Theatre as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ballroom and other student facilities. The $2.5 million Science Center, which houses modern lecture rooms and laboratory facilities for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics and Psychology opened in 1960. New dormitories to accommodate 200 students are now under construction. On the drawing boards are an athletic activities building and a new classroom building.

Additional educational areas are located on a 52 acre campus in Elkins Park and on an 80 acre area in Springfield Township. The Army Artillery ROTC program was initiated in 1950 and now numbers more than 1500 cadets.
